I hereby release, waive and discharge any and all claims against ALASKAN HUSKY ADVENTURES or 17th-Dog LLC, its members, contractors, and employees, for any and all personal injury or property damage which I may have or which may subsequently arise as a result of my participation in: kennel visits, dog sledding, dog sled rides, dog carting, dog cart rides, petting and handling of dogs.

I acknowledge that these activities have inherent risks, hazards and dangers for anyone that cannot be eliminated and I waive and discharge any and all claims whether such injury or damages arises out of my actions and/or recklessness, that of other passengers or the persons or entities mentioned above. This release, waiver and discharge includes, but is not limited to individuals who have preexisting conditions, such as back and neck conditions, fractured limb or limbs, heart conditions or disease, pregnancy or any other physical concern.

I further represent that I have been informed of hazards associated with this activity, including without limitation: cold weather conditions, rough trail conditions, the presence of trees along the side of the trail, the possibility of trees falling on me or the trail during the ride, the length of the ride, the speed the sled or cart travels and the nature of the sled or cart, the potential for the sled or cart to crash, tip or flip over, encounters with domestic or wild animals, unexpected impact with other sleds or snowmachines, the breakdown or failure of equipment, and/or any unexpected or jarring forces and movement which may aggravate previous injuries, and the unavailability of immediate medical attention in the wilderness in case of injury.

I acknowledge I will be riding on or driving the dog sled or dog cart, or walking and touring the kennel at my own risk. I understand that if I choose to interact with the dogs there is a risk of the dogs jumping up on me, licking me, peeing on me, scratching me, biting me and/or knocking me over.
